No estimate can be made at this stage regarding any loss of the exchequer so far as the Government of India is concerned. Public Sector Seed producing agencies like National Seed Corporation, decide the quantities of seeds to be produced based upon an assessment of likely demand. Until the current marketing season for wheat seed is over and until the results of certain export enquiries are known, it will be premature to estimate any losses.

(d) Though seed production and distribution is primarily the responsibility of the State Governments, the Government of India helps them in procuring the required quantities of different seeds from National and public sector seed producing agencies as and when approached.
